

CERTIFIED FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR

Dave McCurry is one of our devoted Certified Flight Instructors. Mr. McCurry flight instructs part-time. He has over 40 years of flight experience and has been with Bergstrom for 37 years. Within his 40 years of flight experience he has gathered 13,000 hours of flying. During those 13,000 he has done charter work, contract work, and flight instruction. Mr. McCurry also has several thousand hours of back country/mountain flying along with flying more than 200 types of single and multi-engine aircraft. Mr. McCurry specializes in multi-engine training and Ice Age Flood Tours.

In Mr. McCurry's spare time he enjoys searching for old plane crash sites. Many of the sites are from World War II aircraft! Dave has written a book dedicated to his finds called Aircraft Wrecks of the Pacific Northwest, which is available for purchase here at Bergstrom Aircraft.

Mr. McCurry says "If we aren't having fun, we aren't learning."
