

PRIVATE PILOT GROUND SCHOOL INSTRUCTOR

Lynn Harbinson is our most recent Private Pilot Ground School Instructor. She completed ground school at Bergstrom in the spring of 2010, and earned her Private Pilot Certificate in July of 2011. In 2013, she earned her Instrument Airplane rating and passed her Fundamentals of Instruction, Advanced Ground Instructor and Instrument Ground Instructor knowledge examinations.

Dr. Harbinson has a BS in Veterinary Science and is a doctor of veterinary medicine. She has practiced small animal medicine in Richland for over 18 years.

Dr. Harbinson is excited to be joining the Ground Instructor team at Bergstrom Aircraft. She enjoys learning and sharing knowledge in all areas of her life. She is also actively involved in the local 99's chapter, which is the International Organization of Women Pilots.

Dr. Lynn Harbinson says "Learning to fly was once a dream that seemed too big to ever come true but has become an integral part of her life."

Like all members of the Bergstrom team, she will do whatever she can to help you reach your aviation goals.
